Preface

This handbook will I

Students are not allowed to work during class time as dictated by federal regulations. If a student has any scheduling conflicts and is not able to work their scheduled hours the student should notify their Supervisor and the Student Financial Services Office.

Maximum Work Hours / Maximum Award

FWS student employees are assigned during the academic year to work a minimum of 5 hours with a maximum of 15

Requesting Student Workers

Returning Students: Prior to the start of each academic year supervisors will receive an email requesting a list of names of returning students they would like authorized to work in their department in the upcoming academic year. Each supervisor must reply with a list of names in order of preference by the said deadline. To assist the supervisors, the Student Financial Services Office will review the student's eligibility and notify the supervisor if the requested student(s) will be eligible for authorization.

Note: If a supervisor does not want a student to return to their department for future employment, the supervisor should notify the Student Financial Services Office as soon as possible.

Returning students who are interested in continuing their employment must file a FAFSA and enroll in classes for the upcoming fall semester to be considered eligible. Supervisors should remind their student employees of these requirements.

New Students: New students will be awarded FWS by the Student Financial Services Office if they meet the established eligibility criteria.

Office, must be submitted to start the process. There may be a waiting period and / or fee to process lost checks.

Job Switching Policy

Students are not allowed to switch jobs once they have been hired unless extreme circumstances are present. After careful review of the circumstances, the Student Employment Coordinator will make the final decision as to whether or not a student will be granted authorization to switch
